PGIMF RECAP

Last Sunday Connie Siedler pursued the theme of spiritual seasons by focusing on the transition from winter to spring. Winter conveys images of darkness and of waiting for spring; a season when death turns to life. Spiritual life also experiences seasons; the winter of our dormancy includes waiting for spring; and spring requires planting and cleaning. Connie noted there is a time for everything, and suggested spring is a time to venture into new territory. Spring is a time to listen to God, to look at our lives and to see what needs renewal. Try new things and sow generously. Spring cleaning is important; we need to get rid of the dust and clutter of winter. Connie suggested the practice of examen (part of Ignatian spirituality) where we reflect on the events of our day, asking questions about when we felt most alive, when we were stressed or distracted, and when we felt closest to God. Spring reminds us that death does not have the last word. (HN)

SCRIPTURE READING

*Matthew 25 v.- 31-46 The Sheep and the Goats

31 "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his glorious throne. 32 All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. 33 He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

Dies Irae: The Medieval Chant

³⁴ “Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. ³⁵ For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, ³⁶ I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.’

³⁷ “Then the righteous will answer him, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? ³⁸ When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? ³⁹ When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?’

⁴⁰ “The King will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.’ ⁴¹ “Then he will say to those on his left, ‘Depart from me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. ⁴² For I was hungry and you gave me nothing to eat,

I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, ⁴³ I was a stranger and you did not invite me in, I needed clothes and you did not clothe me, I was sick and in prison and you did not look after me.’

⁴⁴ “They also will answer, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or needing clothes or sick or in prison, and did not help you?’ ⁴⁵ “He will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me.’ ⁴⁶ “Then they will go away to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life.
